

Daily Planet

Customer and Employee Relations Directorate,
Internal Relations and Communications Department

Friday, March 14

2003

Marshall history book released

A new book on the history of the Marshall Center has been released and will be available in the NASA Exchange Space Shop in Bldg. 4203 for $35. "50 Years of Rockets and Spacecraft in the Rocket City" is a coffee table-styled book sponsored by the NASA-Marshall Retirees Association. It includes a detailed narrative, photographs and "insider" stories recounting Center events, a time-line of major milestones and a list of Marshall retirees. For more information, call Candy Kelley at 544-7565.

STS-113 and Expedition Five crew members to visit Marshall, 10:30 a.m. Tuesday, Morris Auditorium

Marshall Technical Reports Server at <http://trs.nis.nasa.gov/> down 6-10 p.m. Friday. For assistance, call 544-Help, Option 7

Aerospace technologies topic of AIAA seminar Saturday

New advancements in key aerospace technologies, including Space Station operations and future space science plans, will be discussed at an American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics seminar Saturday. Featured presentations will be from members of the Marshall Center's Flight Projects Directorate and Science Directorate. The event is at the University of Alabama in Huntsville's Technology Hall, Room S105, from 9 a.m.-noon. There is a $40 fee and registration begins at 8:30 a.m. For reservations, call John Lassiter at 544-3022.

<http://inside.msfc.nasa.gov>